Art Unit: 1631

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-3, 15, 17, and 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burke (Reviews of Infectious Diseases 13 (Suppl. 11): S906-911 (1991)) in view of applicants' admitted state of the prior art (e.g., page 14, lines 16-18 and 30-34 and page 24, line 16 through page 25, line 7). The plasmid disclosed in Figure 1 (page S907) expresses an HSV truncated protein in CHO cells in culture.

Applicants acknowledge the use of promoters to effect expression in heterologous systems and the specific promoters mentioned in the claims (e.g., see claim 1) to be old. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any of the admittedly old promoters in the expression vector of Burke to achieve higher levels of gene expression. The resultant obvious vector has all of the features of the claimed compositions.

Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Burke (Reviews of Infectious Diseases 13 (Suppl. 11): S906-911 (1991)). The plasmid disclosed in Figure 1 (page S907) has all of the structural features recited in the claims. (e.g., see the figure legend and the paragraph bridging the columns on page S907. The preamble reciting an intended use does not distinguish the claimed compositions from those of the reference.

Claims 4-7, 14, 16, 21-24, 25, 29, and 30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 8-13 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
